

Terms and Conditions of Use (TCU)

Welcome to the Website <https://monitor.mylubmarine.totalenergies.com/auth> (hereinafter "the Website"). By using the Website, you acknowledge having read, understood, and accepted, without limitation or reservation, this document (hereinafter "Terms and Conditions of Use" or "TCU"). You also agree to read the personal data and cookies charter (personal data and cookies charter) available on the Website.

Please note that if you visit other TotalEnergies company websites, other terms and conditions of use and personal data and cookies charters, or any other document relating to the protection of personal data, are applicable on these websites and we recommend that you consult them.

The companies of the TotalEnergies group have their own legal existence and have autonomous legal personality. The company publishing the Website (hereinafter "Website Publisher") belongs to the TotalEnergies company. The terms "TotalEnergies", "TotalEnergies company" and "Company" generally refer to TotalEnergies SE and/or all its subsidiaries; a subsidiary being a company in which TotalEnergies SE directly or indirectly holds the majority of voting rights. It is reminded that each company of the Company has its own legal existence and has autonomous legal personality. Similarly, the terms "we", "our", "us" refer to the Website Publisher or any other company of the TotalEnergies company in general. No implication of TotalEnergies SE, or any of its subsidiaries in the affairs or management of another company of the TotalEnergies company can be inferred from the mere use of these expressions.

6. Warnings

Responsibility

The Information and recommendations available on the Website (hereinafter "Information") are offered in good faith. They are supposed to be correct at the time they are published on the Website. However, the Website Publisher does not guarantee the exhaustive nature and accuracy of this Information. You fully assume the risks related to the credit you give them. This Information is provided to you on the condition that you or any other person who receives them can determine their interest for a specific objective before using them. In no case will the Website Publisher be responsible for damage likely to result from the credit given to this Information or its use. This Information should not be considered as recommendations for the use of information, products, procedures, equipment or formulations that would be in contradiction with any intellectual property right. The Website Publisher disclaims any liability, express or implied, if the use of this Information were to contravene an intellectual property right.

The Website Publisher, and any company of the TotalEnergies company categorically rejects any interpretation that would aim to assimilate the content of its websites to purchase offers or incentives to acquire shares or other securities listed or not listed of the Website Publisher or any other company of the TotalEnergies company.

No guarantee, express or implied, is given as to the merchantable nature of the Information provided, nor as to their suitability for a specific purpose, as well as with regard to the products referred to in this Information. In no case does the Website Publisher undertake to update or correct the Information that will be distributed on the Internet or on its web servers. The Website Publisher reserves the right to modify or correct the content of its websites at any time without notice.

The Website Publisher does not guarantee, without this list being exhaustive, that the Website functions without interruption and that the servers that give access to it and/or the third-party sites for which hyperlinks appear do not contain viruses.

Information and Forward-Looking Statements

The documents presented on the Website may contain forward-looking information about the Company (including objectives and trends), as well as forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, concerning in particular the financial situation, operating results, activities and strategy of TotalEnergies.

The forward-looking information and statements contained in these documents are based on economic data and assumptions formulated in a given economic, competitive and regulatory context. They may prove inaccurate in the future and depend on risk factors that may give rise to a significant difference between actual results and those envisaged, such as in particular the variation in exchange rates, the price of petroleum products, the ability to make cost reductions or efficiency gains without untimely disruption of operations, environmental regulatory considerations and general economic and financial conditions. Similarly, some financial information is based on estimates, particularly when evaluating the recoverable value of assets and the amounts of any asset impairments.

Neither TotalEnergies nor any of its subsidiaries undertakes or takes responsibility vis-à-vis investors or any other stakeholder to update or revise, particularly due to new information and/or future events, all or part of the statements, forward-looking information, trends or objectives contained in these documents. Additional information concerning the factors, risks and uncertainties likely to have an effect on the Company's financial results or activities is available in the most up-to-date versions of the Reference Document / Universal Registration Document filed in France with the Autorité des marchés financiers and the annual report on form 20-F filed in the United States of America with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

7. Updates to the TCU and Applicable Law

The Website Publisher may update the Website's TCU at any time. Consequently, the User is invited to regularly refer to the latest TCU in force available on the Website.

If one or more provisions of the TCU prove to be inapplicable or prohibited by virtue of a public policy regulation, the other provisions of the TCU not affected will remain applicable to the User to the extent permitted by this regulation.

The TCU are subject to French law and fall under the jurisdiction of the competent French courts.
